Enron is the largest firm on the New York Stock Exchange, with a market value of $75 billion, and is one of the world's largest energy and natural-resource companies. The company is known for its significant contributions to the world's energy infrastructure, its innovative business practices, and its commitment to excellence in both its people and the communities in which it operates. It is a technology, media and telecommunications company and a leader in e-business services. This year marks the 40th anniversary of Enron, a company that has built on its founding principles to help shape the world's energy future. During its history, Enron has grown from a small natural-gas pipeline company to a major energy company. Over the past four decades Enron has grown in size and stature to the point where it is ranked No. 53 on Fortune's World's Most Admired Companies, and No. 25 on the Global 100. The City of Philadelphia's Director of Parks, Recreation and Tourism, Brandon Gailmor, will join the city's July 22 fireworks program, for the first time this summer. Gailmor will explain the history of Independence Day celebrations in Philadelphia and help educate guests on the city's rich traditions. A native Philadelphian, Gailmor has been involved with the city's Independence Day celebrations for years. He's been a guest speaker at many youth and community centers as well as the National Park Service, helping celebrate the nation◆
