enter treatment. As addicts, we deserve the best and must be cared for like a child. We must be held and not just spoken to. How would you feel if you learned that your doctor, who had the power to save your life, wasn't there? We are all wounded, scattered and lost.

Addicts need to hear the call that begins with words of compassion.

In the Bible, John writes in one of his letters, “I have been in the world, but you are not in it. I am coming to you.” As Christ’s people, let’s not only listen, we must speak and care.
