

Dindigul I Leoni Pattimandram Tamil MP3 Audio

There is a provision of the state government, to appoint a Tamil as Deputy CM. This has never been applied. This time, however, no one is disputing that it should apply. "This time, no one is disputing that it should apply. Even if the government has a clause in the state constitution, it can still be applied," said Raja. This will take some time. Leoni is the former chairman of the University Grants Commission. He is a former director of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India. He has a PhD in law. Raja says he has a statutory qualification and he will look into whether he can be made a deputy. Raja says there is no rule of precedence between the two. He says once the principal secretary is appointed, Leoni will become deputy CM. This will get over by the next administration. Raja says no one will object if the order is passed by the governor in keeping with Rajya Sabha recommendations. In her book, Thamizhar Thilagam, the author says Leoni has an irritating habit of commenting on women for no reason. She said he has been talking about women, mainly about their hair for the last 30 years. Raja says there is no merit in the charge against Leoni. He says women are born with their hair. They can not change their natural hair color. In Kalaigarnar TV's own words: "Kalaigarnar TV is broadcasting on 15th August 2022 Independence Day, on the occasion of this Independence Day for the first time Kalaigarnar TV is broadcasting Dindigul I Leoni Pattimandram. In this program, different kinds of questions are asked through the used of indian civil code and other documents for better understanding of the concepts and facts. The main theme of this segment is the more understanding of some concepts people have."

Contrary to popular perception, the pattimandram debates are not just confined to Tamil Nadu or India. The first pattimandram was conducted by a student from the prestigious Madras Christian College in Chennai in the early 1990s. That was a landmark event in the history of the arts debates in India. Today, pattimandram debates are conducted in more than half a dozen cities in the state and there is no dearth of topics to choose from. Except for some schools around the state, the pattimandram forum has largely failed to take roots due to the unavailability of subjects, according to Vidhyachar. These debates are held in classrooms or auditoriums on major festivals like Deepavali and Pongal. Pattinapu, a collection of poems written by Tamil intellectual C.T. Rajagopalachar during World War II, contains the poem Pattimandram, which he penned in 1941. The following lines were a sample of the poem: Kadalilla Paramakkal, an audio drama by Vaidhyarajan, also revolves around pattimandram. It was aired in 2003-04. Vallalar (A. R. Rahman) composed the music for the comedy drama. It had a popular appeal and was aired on several radio channels. Another landmark debate, held in the late 1990s, was on Tamil Nadu's statehood with all shades of views coming in. It was conducted by veteran actor Kamal Haasan who told his audience that this debate was a milestone in the history of Tamil Nadu. In the last two-three years, the state Government has not recognised that it should bring up Tamil Nadu education and ensure that Tamil Nadu becomes a leader in Indian education. Unless Tamil Nadu becomes one of the best states in India, the state cannot progress and the DMK Government is also responsible for that, he says. 5ec8ef588b
