... One of the days when it was so hot in the forest that even flies and bees sat at home, and only voices remained from birds I was back at my house again. There was a girl sitting on the porch. When she saw me, she stood up. I approached and said hello. - You're not a local? - asked the girl. - I have a serious conversation with you. "Actually, I'm a local," I said, "just a little lost." - Where do you live? - Not far from here, in the next street. - Where does Lenchka live? I looked at the girl and froze.
